Governor Wolf announced Friday, welcome news for the following 24 counties: Bradford, Cameron, Centre, Clarion, Clearfield, Clinton, Crawford, Elk, Erie, Forest, Jefferson, Lawrence, Lycoming, McKean, Mercer, Montour, Northumberland, Potter, Snyder, Sullivan, Tioga, Union, Venango and Warren!

As of May 8, these counties will be moving to a less restrictive re-opening. Guidelines from the Commonwealth for these counties are as follows:

"Work and Congregate Setting Restrictions"

- Telework must continue where feasible
- Businesses with in-person operations must follow business and building safety orders
- Child care open complying with guidance
- Congregate care and prison restrictions in place
- Schools remain closed for in person instruction

"Social Restrictions"

- Stay at home order lifted for aggressive mitigation
- Large gatherings of more than 25 prohibited
- In person retail allowable, curbside and delivery preferable
- Indoor recreation, health and wellness facilities and personal care services (such as gyms, spas, hair salons, nail salons and other entities that provide massage therapy) and all entertainment (such as casinos, theatres) remain closed
- Restaurants and bars limited to carry-out and delivery only

For all remaining counties, the limit is still ten or under.
